The Daily Quote

“Senators are in the dark on how Congress will eventually move to fund the federal government in fiscal year 2018 just days before the current funding expires. Republican leaders are pushing a two-week continuing resolution this week to keep the government open, but GOP senators say they are clueless as to what the long-term strategy is after that. ‘I have no idea what the plan is,’ Sen. Ron Johnson [R] of Wisconsin said on Monday evening. ‘We really don’t play a part in this, other than we vote for whatever they put in front of us.’ ‘I don’t think anyone knows right now except a handful of people that are crafting it,’ Florida Sen. Marco Rubio [R] said...”
