The Daily Quote

"President Trump's agenda is getting off to a slow start in Congress, as GOP lawmakers search for a path forward on an ObamaCare replacement bill and push other big-ticket items to the back burner... But intraparty divisions... are already slowing the pace of work on legislation... Within the GOP, there are already signs of division that could prove troublesome, particularly when it comes to ObamaCare. Conservatives insist on scrapping as much of the healthcare law as possible as fast as possible, while other Republicans are now emphasizing a 'repair' of the law as it exists. Add in the fact that Republicans have yet to flesh out the details of their replacement plan, and it's clear that there are major roadblocks ahead."
